

Information about Personal Data Protection
Zeppelin CZ s.r.o.

SUPPLIER

The aim of this notice is to provide the information stipulated in Article 13 and 14 of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) to suppliers and their employees whose personal data is processed by Zeppelin CZ s.r.o.

1. Name and contact details for the data controller

For processing of your personal data is responsible Zeppelin CZ s.r.o., with its registered office at Lipová 72, Postal Code 251 70, Modletice, Company Identification No. 18627226.

2. Contact details for the data protection officer

If you have any questions about how we process your personal data, you may contact the Group Data Protection Officer at any time using the following details:

3. Purpose of data processing

Your personal data is processed by the data controller for the purpose of implementing and performing the contractual relationship with the supplier. We process personal data relating to our suppliers' employees for this purpose (in particular the name and contact details of our contact person within the company).

We require these data in order to perform our contract with the supplier, which means the legal basis for data processing is point (b) of Article 6(1) GDPR (performance of contract) or alternatively the legal basis is our legitimate interests (point (f) of Article 6(1) GDPR). Our legitimate interest for processing personal data relating to the supplier and their contact persons is based on the fact that we may not be able to perform the contract with our supplier without these data, provided that the supplier is not classed as a legal person and the interests of our supplier's contact persons do not override our legitimate interests.

The supplier and/or their employees are contractually obliged to provide us with these data. We shall not be able to conclude a contract with the supplier or perform our obligations as stipulated in the contract without these data.

In order to combat terrorism, EU Regulations (EC) 2580/2001 and (EC) 881/2002 demand that none of our suppliers be affiliated with terror suspects as registered on the centrally managed lists (terror lists). We are therefore required to synchronize our data with the terror list before conclusion of the business deal. The legal basis for processing data in this way is point (c) of Article 6(1) GDPR (compliance with a legal obligation) as well as point (f) of Article 6(1) (legitimate interest) GDPR. Our legitimate interest in this instance is in minimizing risk and avoiding financial penalties for infringement of the law.

4. Data recipients or categories of recipients

We share personal data relating to our suppliers with other Group companies where necessary, or with other companies listed on the website of Zeppelin CZ s.r.o. Data shall only be shared and processed to the extent necessary to fulfil a specific purpose.

5. Planned data transfer to third countries

There is no plan to transfer data to recipients in third countries.

6. Data retention period

We retain the personal data which we have collected for proper performance of the contract for a period of three years from complete performance of the mutual contractual obligations. These data are then automatically erased at the end of the year, unless continued retention of personal data is required to comply with a legal obligation.

7. Data subject rights

All data subjects are entitled to the following rights:

- Right to access (Article 15 GDPR);
- Right to rectification of inaccurate data (Article 16 GDPR);
- Right to erasure or “the right to be forgotten” (Article 17 GDPR)
- Right to restrict processing of personal data (Article 18 GDPR);
- Right to data portability (Article 20 GDPR).

In addition to these rights, the data subject is also entitled to a general right to object (cf. Article 21(1) GDPR), in which case the objection to data processing must be justified. If the legal basis for processing the data is consent then this can be revoked at any time and the revocation shall be effective for future processing.

Please contact datenschutz@zeppelin.com or the address listed under paragraph 2 to exercise any of these data subject rights.

Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, every data subject shall have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if the data subject considers that the processing of personal data relating to him or her infringes GDPR (Article 77 GDPR). The data subject may exercise this right with a supervisory authority in the member state of his or her habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement. The public administration supervisory body for personal data protection in the Czech Republic is the Office for Personal Data Protection, registered office: Pplk. Sochora 27, Postal Code: 170 00, Prague 7, www.uouu.cz.
